Description

ZINUS Compack Fabric Covered Wood Slats / Bunkie Board / Box Spring Replacement, Full, Natural Full Slats 74.15

Ready to upgrade your mattress support, but hesitant to let go of your favorite standard bed frame? We have the answer. Easily convert your metal or upholstered bed frame into a platform bed and eliminate the need for a box spring with our Compack® Fabric Covered Wood Slats. This strong and simple set of wooden slats can be placed vertically on the inner edges of your bed frame to dependably support any mattress. Even better, they require no assembly. Simply remove them from their ultra-slim shipping box and unroll to instantly create your own platform bed with incomparable structure and durability. And just like all of our foundations, the Compack® Fabric Covered Wood Slats come backed by a 5-year worry-free warranty to help you further destress and unwind. It might be the easiest bedroom makeover you've ever completed, but it'll also be the smartest.
